The learned counsel appearing for Animal Welfare Board of India informs that guidelines have already been framed by them pursuant to order of this Court dated December 18, 2009 and copy of the guidelines have also been placed on record. She further states that within 6 weeks from today, the Board will be able to identify the suitable sites in the colonies, subject matter of these petitions, for the purpose of feeding the stray dogs. The Board will also specify the timings of feeding the dogs in these colonies within that period. After identifying the sites and fixing the time for feeding the dogs, the Board will take steps to inform the residents of the locality about the sites at which and the timing during which the dogs have to be fed by the NGOs and Voluntary Organizations. The Board will also put up boards at the identified sites, indicating the time at which the dogs will be fed on those sites. The purpose is to inform the residents and other passersby that the dogs in that colony will be fed on those spots, during the time shown on the board so that they may either avoid or be careful while passing through those spots, at the specified timings.

After completing the aforesaid exercise in respect of the colonies, which are subject matter of these petitions, the Board will undertake similar exercise in respect of other residential colonies of Delhi. The Board will try to complete the exercise as soon as it may be possible for it.

The petitions be listed for further hearing on 10th May 2010.
